Showcase Opportunity for Artists

The City of Rockville Cultural Arts Commission and the Department of Recreation and Parks are sponsoring a new initiative TO DISCOVER LOCAL ARTISTS and to arrange a public venue for their work, where the community will be invited to attend. This proposed program is intended to give public exposure to gifted artists while promoting and sharing the wide wealth of regional talent with our greater Rockville community.

Eligibility

OPEN TO ALL - We are looking for artists and artist groups working in all disciplines—

- Visual artists (painters, sculptors, photographers, filmmakers, etc.)
- Literary artists (poets, novelists, storytellers, etc.)
- Performing artists (musicians, singers, actors, dancers, comedians, etc.)
- Multidisciplinary artists
- Arts-related speakers

Entry Requirements

NO ENTRY FEE. Complete the attached application form and return it with requested materials by 5 p.m. on Thursday, August 31, 2006.

Venues

TO BE DETERMINED PER EACH APPLICATION.
All selected artists will be provided appropriate venues. City of Rockville facilities and parks will be used via existing offerings as well as new arts-based programs and special events (festivals, concert series and exhibits).

Selection Process

A panel of artists and members of the Cultural Arts Commission will carefully review all applications and submitted materials. Working with City staff, our goal is to accommodate as many qualified applicants as possible with new opportunities to showcase their talents. Preference will be given to artists living or working in Rockville but all area artists are encouraged to apply.

Hidden Rockville Calendar

- June - August 2006 solicitation of interest
- Thursday, August 31, 2006 deadline for submissions
- September 2006 review of all applications
- October 2006 notification to all applicants
- November 2006 - February 2007 inclusion of artists in existing and new showcase opportunities
- Winter 2006 Call for interest for 2007 opportunities
